

CAUTION NOTICE

Misuse of Logos of commercial banks by fraudulent websites.

Bank has received a communication from IBA/RBI mentioning that complaints have been received from public against various entities which operate portals/websites (under names as Customer Service Points, Bank Customer Service Points, APNA Customer Service Points, Bankmitra etc.) to enlist them as customer service points of different commercial Banks using Bank's name/logos with ulterior motive to earn wrongful gain from public by collecting varying amounts from the public interested to be appointed as Customer service points and subsequently duping them of their money.

Similar complaints have been received from West Bengal, Karnataka, Jharkhand, Uttar Pradesh, Maharashtra, Bihar etc.

It may be mentioned that the entities which operate these websites are unincorporated bodies and are not registered with RBI as NBFCs.

Public at large is advised not to fall prey to such fraudsters. UCO Bank neither seeks nor asks and accepts any monies in any form from the public for online sourcing of applications for allotment of Customer Service Points.
